BY TELEGRAPH

[FROM OUR SUNDAY'S EDITION.]

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 9.—The Virginia Committee had a private meeting last night, at which they formally organized. The proceedings were confined to a general exchange of views, delivered in a colloquial and informal manner. Although the programme is considered settled, the Committee will remain in permanent organization, keeping a quorum of this body here until something is accomplished for the relief of the State. They have pledged themselves to allow no discouraging or untoward events to deter them from the earnest and persistent pursuit of the object in view. No changes will be made in the committee. A letter has been received from Wendell Robinson, stating that although he had been detained, he would soon arrive. The Committee will meet to-morrow at 9 o'clock, and remain in full session till Wednesday next, when all but a quorum will go home, with the understanding that some will return and relieve those here on duty, thus keeping constantly in session, and prepared to take advantage of any circumstance which may arise towards gaining the object of this meeting.

The statement telegraphed to some newspapers that Chauncey M Snow, of the National Intelligencer, had been appointed Commissioner to examine the Union Pacific Railroad, in place of Cornelius Wendall, resigned, is not true. He has, however, been appointed a Director of that road vice J. S. Rollins, of Missouri, resigned.

Fractional currency printed during the week, $710 500; shipments, $422 315; National Bank currency issued, $121,010; amount in circulation, $299,822 179; fractional currency destroyed, $624 400; coupon receipts from December 21st to 31st inclusive, $8,111,407.

VIRGINIA.

NORFOLK, January 9.—Details of the negro troubles near Kempsville, in Princess Anne county, have been received. Lieut. Farragut and a force of whites, en route to the farm occupied by negro squatters, who were to be ejected, passed an armed force of seventy-five negroes in the woods, who made no demonstration. On nearing the farm a fresh number, variously armed, retreated to a house, which was surrounded. Secretary Cullen advanced to the door and was instantly shot, which so infuriated the troops that they returned the fire, and rushing into the house bayonetted one or two negroes. Three were killed outright. The troops were withdrawn after affecting the arrest of one or two of the ringleaders. A delegation of negroes then waited on the officers and demanded the captured men which was refused. The spokesman then reiterated that if that was the way things were going on, every white man would be the foe of the country. The citizens of Kempsville picketed the village, the woods being filled with armed negroes. This morning they had disappeared, and with a view to more speedy pacification, the troops returned to the city. Apprehensions are still entertained of a renewal, and great excitement continues. Battery A, Fifth Artillery, arrived here yesterday to reinforce the troops. A negro named Hodges, formerly a member of the Constitutional Convention, is reported to have occasioned the resistance to the civil authorities by an inflammatory speech, in which he told them to hold on to the property and fight to the last.

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, January 9.—As an offset to the operations of the Virginia Committee in Washington, the State Grant and Colfax association have adopted a memorial asking Congress, in view of the deception practiced by persons whose disabilities have not been removed, that no further steps be taken in that direction until the applicants have proved in the coming election that they favor reconstruction by voting for it. A committee is to be sent to Washington to oppose the amnesty movement.

The remains of John Minor Botts arrived this evening, and were laid in state in the Senate Chamber.

BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, January 9.—Chief Justice Scott, of the Supreme Bench of this city, and assigned to the City Court, to-day delivered an opinion in the habeas corpus case of Henry Drescher, a new resident. Drescher is a resident of Newark, N. J., and was arrested and committed to jail on the 11th of December, charged with violating an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, which forbids any person, not a permanent resident of the State, offering or exposing for sale goods, wares, etc., without first obtaining license so to do. The petitioner alleges that he is a citizen of New Jersey, and claims that he is not liable under said act, first, because the act in question is in violation of the eighth and tenth sections of the first article of the Constitution; and second, that said act is in violation of the second section of article 4 of the Constitution of the United States. Judge Scott decides that the Constitution does not give any control to Congress over the domestic trade of States, and concludes as follows: "I am of the opinion that our State act in question is not in violation of the Constitution of the United States, and that the petitioner has no cause of complaint; and it is therefore ordered and adjudged that the petition be dismissed, and that the petitioner be removed to the custody of the Warden, until discharged in due course of law. The prisoner can be admitted to bail at any time." Drescher was accordingly recommitted.

SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 9.—A letter from Culius, Mexico, gives an account of a terrible earthquake which was experienced in that city on the morning of the 20th of December. For thirty days previous the volcano of Culina, thirty miles distant from the city, had exhibited symptoms of internal commotion, sending forth smoke and steam, accompanied by mumblings and shakings of the earth, and on the morning of the 20th by a gentle rocking of the earth, which gradually increased in violence until the walls of the houses in the city cracked and everything breakable was demolished. The vibrations from the northeast to southeast lasted forty seconds. The Cathedral, a warehouse and all the brick buildings were cracked from top to bottom, and the people startled from sleep, rushed frantically for the plaza. Reports reported that a number of persons were killed by the falling of the National Hotel. The shock was felt a long distance in the interior. Places in the ground were opened, trees uprooted, hills leveled, the water courses changed, and a general upheaval of the earth took place. At the city of Manzillo the cathedral which had stood the shocks of earthquakes and storms for over a century, was riven from top to bottom, and even the tiles on the roof were broken to pieces. Some eighteen or twenty persons were crushed by the falling walls of the American Hotel and the other buildings, and were buried in the ruins.

John Dixon, a recent arrival from Australia, and formerly a clerk in the Oriental Bank Corporation at Melbourne, was arrested to-day for forgery. He had on his person, when arrested, letters of credit and bills of exchange amounting to over $80,000, written on genuine paper of the Oriental Bank at Melbourne, purporting to be signed by the regular officers of the bank.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, January 9.—F. S. Richards, Speaker of the House of Representatives and delegate to the Chicago Convention for the State at large, has introduced a bill in the House, to be submitted to the voice of the people, authorizing a Convention, to be composed of the members of the present Legislature, to convene on the 22d of February, to enfranchise the disfranchised people of this State. The bill came up in the House today, and Mr. Richards made an able speech in support of it. The bill, at the close of the debate, was indefinitely postponed. Mr. Richards is a thorough national Republican, and in 1866 advocated the bill allowing negroes to testify in the courts, and voted for their enfranchisement, but the majority of the House differ with him on the suffrage question, but admitting his ability and trustworthiness, they do not think the time for a general enfranchisement has arrived. The subject will hereafter come up in another shape. The Kuklux have much to do with the state of feeling on the franchise question.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, January 9.—The funeral of Gen. Rousseau this afternoon was largely attended, notwithstanding the unpleasantness of the weather. The services were performed at Christ Church by the Bishop of Louisiana. The pall-bearers were Gens Hatch, Mower, Bickwith, Babcock, Porter, Tompkins, McClellen, Steedman, Herron, Lee, McMillan, Bussey and Gurney, and also an equal number of the Masonic fraternity. The escort consisted of the 1st United States Infantry, Battery K, 1st United States Artillery, company G, 6th United States Cavalry, Masonic fraternity, city officers and Council, State officers, members of the Legislature, and a large concourse of citizens on foot and in carriages. Resolutions of sympathy and regret were adopted by the Legislature and City Council, and messages of a similar character were transmitted by the Governor and Mayor to those bodies. The Courts adjourned and nearly all the public offices and business houses were closed along the line of march of the funeral cortege.

FOREIGN.

MADRID, January 9.—A grand banquet was given at Seville last eveing. All the municipal officers of the city and many other notables were present. One of the features of the banquet was a complimentary telegram which was sent to Espartero, wherein the guests expressed their preference for him at the head of the State, whatever the decision of Cortes may be relative to the future form of Government.

LONDON, January 9.—Advices from Candia by mail fully confirm the previous reports of the submission of the Cretans to the Turks.

A vessel has arrived here, reporting having passed a ship bound for New York, with thirty of the mississing passengers and crew of the steamship Hibernia.

CONSTANTINOPLE, January 9.—The Greek Blue Book, copies of which have been received here, contain a statement that Gen. Ignatiev, the Russian Ambassador to the Sultan's court, assured Mr. Delgianis the Greek Minister here would not replace any action of Greece in reference to Crete.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, January 9.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says the Treasury authorities have ascertained that the recent raid upon Clarksville, Texas, and the murder of Inspectors Phillips and Hammond were committed in the interest of the whisky ring; and, moreover, that certain telegraph companies are in league with the "ring." Telegrams that were sent from here to officers of customs and internal revenue, at New Orleans, were known to outside parties almost as soon as they were put on the wires, and dispatches from the officers in New Orleans, in reference to affairs in Texas, were known to members of the whisky ring here before they were received at the Department. Measures have been adopted by the War Department to secure the safety, in future, of the officers of the Government on duty along the Rio Grande.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, January 9.—Gen. Sherman has received information that the representatives of 400 lodges of Comanches had arrived at Fort Bascomb, New Mexico, and offered to surrender, and that they were notified that no surrender would be received at Fort Cobb, the object being to have all the tribes on the plains within watching distance of Gen. Sheridan.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, January 9.—McDavitt declines Dean's very fair challenge to play three pins shot American games on 1500 or 3000 points, the first in Chicago, the second in Montreal and the third in New York, for $1000 or $2000 a side for each game. He will only play the pin shot game of 1500 or 2000 points for $500 a side, in Chicago, which he knows no sensible player will accept.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, January 9.—Three counterfeiters, with a lot of nickel coin and the implements to make the same, were taken in by the police officers this morning, and the United States Commissioners committed them to jail in default of bail.

THE SCHOOL FUND.

The State Treasurer's Report to the General Assembly.

The Amount of Notes in Judge Brown's Hands.

In the Legislature on Thursday, Mr. Rust, the State Treasurer, in obedience to a House resolution, furnished the following report of the amount of the notes, etc., belonging to the School Fund placed by him in the hands of that "law firm" for collection:

"In obedience to House resolution No. —, I herewith respectfully report, that there was placed in the hands of F. N. Brown, attorney at law, by my predecessor, the following claims for collections, viz:

"No. 1846, note of Henry C. Haver, indorsed by R. L. Dalton and George Rutter, for $133 33; No. 1247, note of M. N. Cluskey for $1000; No. 1279, note of Rolf S. Saunders for $750; No. 1343 note of S. S. James for $1000; No. 1205, paid, $1795; No. 1160 note of T. Y. Taylor for $1000; No. 1204, note of Mancourt & Bryson for $1600; No. 1262 note of Robt. Grist for $500; No. 1037, note of Thomas Leonard for $1000; No. 943, note of E. W. Wickersham for $500; No. 11, notes of E. W. Wickersham for $5500; other notes to the amount of about $3700, of which he reported collected the sum of $15,548 16, of which amount he paid to M. Henry, Treasurer, as per his receipt, $8723 92, leaving in his hands a balance of $7822 71. The report was referred to the Committee on Finance.

COL. JOHN W. DUNCAN, a prominent citizen of Georgia, died at his residence in Atlanta, on the 5th instant. He was at one time connected with the Intelligencer of that city and was highly esteemed by his neighbors and friends as a gentleman of marked ability.

A BILL OF DAMAGES.

What the Loyal Men of Tennessee Lost During the War.

A Wealthy Class of People.

Col. Waters, General Claim Agent for the State of Tennessee, has made a report of claims preferred against the General Government by "loyal citizens" of this State, for losses incurred by them during the "rebellion." The claims are arranged by counties, and are carefully collated by the Commissioners appointed under the act of February 19, 1868.

The Nashville Union and American, in publishing this list, which we append, makes some very significant and startling developments, showing, as it very aptly says, "one of two things: that portions of the State were terribly ravaged by the contending armies, or there is a very bold attempt to make 'loyalty' pay." To prove this, it takes the value of all the taxable property, other than real estate or slaves, in certain counties in East Tennessee, for the year 1860, as shown by the Comptroller's report, and institutes a comparison between this total amount of property and the amount of losses claimed by the "loyal citizens."

For instance, by a reference to the appended table, it will be seen that in Carter county the "loyal" losses are set down as $176,605. The Comptroller's report for the year 1860 puts down the total value of taxable property in this county (excepting, of course, land and slaves) at $31 195,000, or one hundred and forty five thousand four hundred and eleven dollars less than the loyal citizens claim to have lost. Other counties show a similar state of affairs. We quote a few, the most "out of the way:"

Counties.	Taxable Property.	Loyal Losses.
Anderson	$66,34[illegible]	$ 50,393
Campbell	[illegible],465	57,465
Claiborne	73,962	106,439
Clarke	68,119	179,650
Hancock	31,211	69,450
Johnson	21,078	47,42[illegible]
Morgan	15,968	26,760
Scott	64,[illegible]62	64,362
Union	58,077	72,625

This exhibit, as the Union and American says, illustrates the position that the ravages of the two armies were fearful indeed, and must have left nothing but squalid poverty in "loyal" East Tennessee, or there has been a very sharp attempt at making "loyalty" pay.

There is another feature in the business: The "loyal" citizens of Franklin county claim to have lost $119,057. When the question of secession was presented to the people of that county on the 8th of June, 1861, there was not a "loyal citizen" to vote against it, and so the vote was unanimous in favor of secession. In Shelby county there were only five who voted against secession. Yet the "loyal citizens" of that county are sufferers by the rebellion to the tune of $544 194. There are several other counties in Middle and West Tennessee where "Union men" were remarkably scarce upon the largest vote ever polled in the State, when the question of secession was presented to this people, whose property, according to the figures returned to the General Claim Commissioner, must have been swept from the face of the earth. As "rebels" and "loyal citizens" suffered alike from the taking and destruction of property by the two armies which, from its peculiar location, preyed almost incessantly upon this State, the wonder is how the people have managed to subsist. We think every candid man will admit that this is one of the nicest little games to make money that has ever been attempted in Tennessee. The whole thing is a desperate attempt to make "loyalty" pay, but it is hardly probable that Congress will, by making an appropriation to pay these "claims," set a precedent that would add untold millions to the national debt.

The appended is the table referred to, and presents a nice little bill for the nation to settle—the aggregate amount being about six and a-half millions of dollars.

GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, January 9.—It is reported that the murderers of Martin and his two sisters, who were mudered a few weeks ago, were taken from the jail at Appling and lynched. A white man named Anderson Upton, and three negroes, who composed the party, confessed having murdered Martin and his sisters and the subsequent burning of the house in order to cover their guilt.

IMMIGRATION TO TENNESSEE.

What the Railroads Propose to Do.

The People of the North Look to Tennessee as a Mecca.

The Nashville Press and Times (Radical) of Thursday says:

"We learn from Commissioner Bokum, who has just returned from Atlanta, that important steps have been taken by the convention of railroad officers, held there, in favor of immigration. Mr. Bokum has handed us the following interesting letter for publication," which, let the APPEAL add, is one among many truthful answers to the defaming inuendos of the South and of Tennessee, propagated by public men interested in the sale of lands in other States:

EBADY POSTOFFICE, INDIANA CO., PA., December 2, 1868.

Rev. H. Bokum:

Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your interesting letter, and, as requested, will publish it in our county papers. I am also in receipt of your welcome annual report, which is eagerly sought after by the friends. I hope you will send another copy. Your "Hand-Book" came also, and before I left the office I had to give it to persons who contemplate going to Tennessee. These books are sought after with such tenacity that I can scarcely keep them to read myself, for any length of time. I will have extracts published from your annual report; they will have a beneficial effect on our emigration movement. Some left last week for your State, and next Monday two gentlemen are going to purchase a tract of land for a colony; a number propose starting in three weeks; they will call and see you. These may be termed the skirmishers, in advance of the spring emigration. Tennessee is gaining ground among those who propose emigrating, and in fact it appears to be the modern "Mecca" in the minds of the people. People who have hitherto withstood the inducements to emigrate Westward are now anxious to go to Tennessee. Sometimes think there is a mysterious influence in the name. Persons whose wives and children are troubled with the ills incident to our rigorous Northern winters, want a more genial clime. The winter has been severe for nearly a month. More than thirty-two inches of snow have fallen. If the Legislature strengthens your hands and co-operates with the emigration movements as suggested by you, they may look for a large influx of population next (this) year, a hardy, liberty-loving people.

I have submitted your suggestion for a lecture to the friends of the movement, and they are highly elated. You will hear from them ere long. Gentlemen who have been to your State, and who have returned with glowing descriptions of the same, but who had nothing to sustain their declarations except their mere ipse dixit, tender you their thanks for your Hand Book and Report; it strengthens their declarations and makes their assertions have the weight that properly belongs to them. I hope you may be successful in making arrangements for the cheap transit of emigrants to your State.

COMMON SENSE.

We heartily endorse the following timely and common sense remarks of our neighbor the Ledger:

It will be seen from the proceedings of the County Commissioners that the subscription asked for by the President and Directors of the Mississippi railroad has been voted to the extent of $300,000. It is suggested that during the consideration of the subject the only opposition which was made apparent arose from personal hostility to Mr. Mitchell, the President of the road. We have heard of similar opposition to the Selma road, on account of the connection of Gen. Forrest therewith. This is all wrong, come from whence it may. We cannot get along without burying the past as far as all, who as good citizens, are engaged and efficient in enterprises for the public good. That Mr. Mitchell was a Unionist, and that Gen. Forrest was a Confederate is equally no fault. That one is a Republican and the other a Democrat is not the matter with which we are concerned. The question is one of qualifications alone. No one doubts the executive ability of Gen. Forrest for one road, and there is no more reason to doubt the fitness of Mr. Mitchell for the other. He is a quiet and unostentatious man. He is not the less efficient because he makes no large pretentions. Men who make a "big blow" generally make but "a small show." We understand Mr. Mitchell is an experienced railroad man. And he has certainly proved his zeal in this matter by his unfaltering efforts for several years, and his competency by his success. He has not only the support of the Board of Directors, but that also of the intelligent and influential citizens along the line of the road, which confidence he has. He has obtained the charter by personal exertions, without which, with the advantages it confers, it could never have been obtained. And now that subscriptions of means are beginning to be realized, he is too far on the way to success to leave any doubt that, as to this road, he is the right man in the right place. We have as little use for his political views as is possible. But believing him to deserve respect as a private gentleman, and to have the disposition as well as the power to do the service required, we shall not permit ourselves to oppose him on the ground of political antagonisms. In business matters a truce to politics for the present, and let every man behave himself.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 11, 1869

BISHOP MARTINEZ, who was banished from Cuba to Spain by Governor LERSUNDI, returned with DULCE. This is a merited rebuke for LERSUNDI. The Bishop is a favorite with the Cubans.

BISHOP MCILVAINE, of Ohio, writes to one of his flock "that bowing in the "creed is a matter indifferent in itself, "and may be adopted or not, according "to individual preference. It is not re- "quired in the formulas of the church, "and is no test of churchmanship, but a "step in the direction of ritualistic and "superstitious usages that no rector has "a right to exact of his congregation."

AN old and respectable citizen of Jefferson, Texas, was shot and killed on the 3d instant, and the affair is dismissed by the remark, "It is supposed to have been done by soldiers through mistake." If a negro had been shot for outraging a white woman or child, the Radical press would have been filled with clamors for vengeance upon the perpetrators of the deed.

A NATIONAL CONVENTION of colored citizens will be held in Washington on Wednesday, the 13th inst., as the call sets forth, "to take into consideration all matters affecting their new relations to public affairs, and their course of future action." It is rumored that during the sitting of the Convention, its members will endeavor to press upon Congress the reconstruction of Georgia and the admission to a seat in Congress of the yellow adventurer from Louisiana—MENARD.

IN the Baltimore Circuit Court, on the 5th inst., Judge PINKNEY delivered his opinion in the case of ADDISON vs. ADDISON. The bill in the case was filed for the sale of certain property, the title of which involved a question of the legality of a marriage contract between slaves. Judge PINKNEY decided that emancipation gives to the slave his civil rights; and that a contract of marriage was legal and valid by the consent of the master, and the moral assent of the slave from the moment of his freedom. Although dormant during slavery, it produces all the effects which result from such contract among free persons.

IT is calculated by several observers that the trade of Memphis during the year 1868 footed up somewhere in the neighborhood of $60,000,000, and that this year of 1869 it will reach perhaps $80,000,000, notwithstanding the general cry of dull times. That this is encouraging may be seen by reference to the following table which we find going the rounds of the press:

Boston	$1,000,000,000
Philadelphia	862,000,000
New Orleans	526,000,000
Chicago	342,000,000
Baltimore	324,000,000
Cincinnati	213,000,000
St. Louis	213,000,000
San Francisco	151,000,000
Louisville	126,000,000
Milwaukie	110,000,000

None of the remaining cities of the country reach $100,000,000 of sales annually.

MR. W. O. PICKETT, an accomplished engineer, who has just finished a survey of the contemplated line of railroad between Brownsville and Dyersburg, says of the section of country through which the Mississippi River Railroad will pass, that it "is not surpassed in "fertility of soil by any portion of "Tennessee." And again, that the "revenue accruing to this country from "the immense forests of yellow poplar "and white oak timber, will in five "years almost build the road, to say "nothing of the products from a soil "that averages, one year with another, "ten barrels of corn to the acre, and one "bale of cotton. It seems remarkable "that Dyer county, with as wealthy and "intelligent population as she has, has "not long ago forced an outlet for the "abundant productions of her unsur- "passed soil."

THE Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says that BUTLER is shortly to "go for" greenbacks. He says that the speech of the "Beast," to be delivered in Congress shortly, is likely to create as wide, and perhaps even more acrimonious, discussion than others he has made. In addition to restating his policy and making arguments in its support, he will review the plan of Senator MORTON, and make a vigorous assault upon the idea of "specie" as the basis of currency and the standard of values. BUTLER opposes a coin currency as the one which, more than all else, has been responsible for the fluctuation in values and in the monetary disorders which afflict modern exchange and trade. He holds that a currency like our greenbacks, based upon the faith of a great nation, and to which all its property is pledged, is more desirable than specie.

IN THE Nashville Banner of Friday we find the following cheering extract from a letter written to a friend in that city by Mr. THOS. WALKER, land agent in Warren county, at McMinnville. Mr. WALKER says: "There have been "eighteen farms purchased by Northern "immigrants, the aggregate number "contained therein being 4525 acres. "Twenty-two families have come and "settled in this county, and some half "dozen families have come that have "not yet purchased. Quite a number "have gone through to Hersheba Springs "and different parts of Cumberland Mountain. There are several North- "ern men now here looking out homes. "A great many more are coming. Mid- "die Tennessee will be filled to over- "flowing this coming year." And all this notwithstanding Gov. BROWNLOW's opinion that East Tennessee is a paradise, and Middle and West a "very hell."

CHILI has instructed her delegate to the Mediation Council, at Washington, to accept a truce only, without signing the final instrument of peace. Let the final instrument be presented, and Chili will not dare to withhold her signature.

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN recently addressed a Fenian assemblage in New York, of which a reporter says that "from the beginning of his speech until its close, the meeting was an indescribable scene, in which cheers, groans, laughter, hisses, and shouts echoed the speaker's sentiment. 'Civis Americanus sume pumpkins,' 'rambled among words,' for about three hours. He spoke highly of those journals which published his speeches, and 'defied' the rest of the press. He nominated himself for President in 1872, and expressed perfect confidence that he would be elected. He announced his intention of lecturing this winter, at fifty cents a head, to pay his election expenses. At the same time he spurned office. He read some remarkable epigrams, one of these being as follows:

"'Greeley, Bennett, Bryant, Weed,
Yellow cucumbers gone to seed.
Octogenarians, lean, imbecile and mean,
Who cut much but cut when they were green.'"

WE desire to impress upon the people of the surrounding country the fact that Memphis is not surpassed by any other city in the world as a cotton mart. Here is the proof: On Saturday, at the close of the day, middling cotton sold in Memphis at twenty-eight cents per pound; at the same time in New Orleans at twenty-seven cents (one cent less than Memphis prices); at the same time in New York at twenty-eight and a half cents (only one-half cent in advance of Memphis prices); and at Liverpool, same time, eleven and one eighth to eleven and one-fourth pence. When the cost of transportation to these cities is taken into consideration, it will be apparent to the least intelligent that Memphis pays the planter more money for his cotton than he can possibly expect or receive at any other point. Remember this, planting friends of the APPEAL, and ship your cotton to responsible houses in this city, from whom you can realize the best market rates and the quickest returns.

The country is intimately interested in the progress and well-doing of Memphis. If we handle 300,000 bales of cotton at current rates and the higher prices yet to rule—making an average for the season of thirty cents—the benefits accruing, while they will be most felt in Memphis, will be reflected back upon the country in a thousand profitable ways. For the people in the neighboring country to assist us is to assist themselves. Give Memphis a preference when you have cotton to sell; by doing so you will realize the very last cent possible to be procured for it.

THE New York World says of the new era dawning in the South:

"Despite a combination of unfavorable causes, such as, perhaps, has never fallen to the lot of any people before, the Southerners seem literally rising from the dust, and proving that 'e'en in their ashes live their wonted fires.' The talk of Wall street is that capital is streaming pretty heavily toward cotton lands, sugar plantations, railways, and other forms of Southern investment, and to a considerable extent the present tightness in the money market is attributed to the volume of this drain. It might assist a comprehension of the advantages now offered by them to capitalists, if their newspapers would devote something less of their space to such ephemera as negro suffrage, reconstruction, Radical domination, and so on, and dwell more fully on industrial topics, and local natural wealth."

If the editors of the New York World would carefully note the columns of the Southern press, they would give us credit for doing just what they advise so well. We are devoting nearly all of our space to public and private improvements, hence the drain of money southward from Wall street, and the emigration now pouring into our State.

THE Cincinnati (Radical) Commercial of Saturday, referring to Col. PORTER's justification to Gen. GRANT of CLAYTON's infamous conduct of affairs in Arkansas, says:

The Governor of Arkansas appears to have been justified in the measures taken since the election to put an end to lawlessness and outrage in that State. But it would have been better to entrust the work to the forces of the General Government. The militia are filled with partisan bitterness, and many of them have personal wrongs to avenge. Evidence is not wanting that they did do deeds of violence in the counties under martial law, of which the ex-rebels have cause to complain. Doubtless the officers did all they could to preserve discipline and keep the militia under control, but they could not do it. It would be infinitely better to call the regular troops into action in such emergencies, as they are thoroughly disciplined and are wanting in that local feeling which leads men enlisted on the spot to abuse the privilege and power put into their hands.

Even Radical Northern journalists are better posted and more just to the people of Arkansas, than the members of GRANT's staff.

THE following is a complete list of the Southern military and civil officers indicted for treason by the Grand Jury of the United States Circuit Court for the District of Virginia:

Jefferson Davis, John C. Breckinridge, Judge Henry W. Thomas, ex Gov. Wm. Smith, Gen. Wade Hampton, Gen. Benjamin Huger, ex-Gov. Henry A. Wise, Gen. Samuel Cooper, Gen. G. W. C. Lee, Gen. R. E. Lee, Gen. W. H. F. Lee, Secretary C. K. Mallory, Gen. Wm Mahone, Gen. James Longstreet, Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, Wm. E. Taylor, Oscar F. Baxter, George W. Alexander, Gen. Eppa Hunton, R. H. Booker, M. D. Corse, John R. DeBree, Gen. Roger A. Pryor, Maj D. B. Bridgeford. Gen. Jubal A. Early, Gen. Richard Ewell, Thomas P. Turner, Wm. S. Winder, Hon. James A. Seddon, Geo. Booker, Wm. H. Payne, Cornelius Bayles, Richard S. Andrews, R. B Richards, Hon. Chas. J. Faulkner, R. H Dulaney, W. N. McVeigh and H. B. Tyler.

Nolle Prosequi have been entered in the cases of Hon. THOMAS S. BOCOCK and Judge ROBERT OULD, and it is believed will shortly be in the cases of all. If not, we have little doubt that those who do not plead pardon will be allowed to pass by failure of process.

THE Nashville Banner thus very properly condemns, and suggests the folly of the recent raid on Shelbyville by a masked party:

The case as it now stands presents an ugly aspect and may yet result in very serious consequences. It is a deplorable fact, but nevertheless true, that the masked raiders of Saturday night are mainly responsible for the Shelbyville disturbances. The trouble is, that the evil consequences arising from their lawless acts do not stop at Shelbyville, but affect the people of the whole State, deter immigration, besides giving the party in power at least a pretext for arbitrary and despotic measures. The burdens of the disfranchised masses are grievous and hard to be borne, but surely the method to seek redress is not in the lawless way marked out by masked marauders. Public sentiment must be educated to frown down all such midnight depredations. It is gratifying to be able to know that almost every conservative in and around Shelbyville strongly disapprove of the daring and deviltry of the hooded raiders, and are using their influence to prevent a repetition of the depredations of Saturday night.

The Shelbyville Expositor, referring to the these raiders, says:

Whatever their object may have been, whether fun or Christmas frolic, we regret the occurrence of last Saturday night.

There is enough bitterness of feeling in our county already, without its being increased by these unnecessary raids, and we hope that a like reception of Saturday night may occur again. Whether real or pretended Ku-Klux, such demonstrations do no good, even if they intend no harm to any one.

It is not our province to abuse or vindicate these men, whoever they may be, but it is ours to say, as Grant has said, "Let us have Peace," and we hope that all influential men of the Radical party will use, in good faith, their best endeavors to allay the animosities in the minds of the less thoughtful of their party; and, on the other hand, that those of similar influence on the other side will do the same. Let us ALL labor to do right, to cultivate friendship, harmony and peace that prosperity, happiness and liberty may be the common boon of all.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, January 10.—Hon. J. M. Botts was buried this afternoon from St. James' church. The State officials and members of the Grant and Colfax association, were in the procession. A very large crowd of freedmen followed his remains to the cemetery.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 10.—The statement that about $500,000 stands to the credit of Judge Busteed in a bank in Mobile is untrue. Judge Busteed expresses the conviction that the Judiciary Committee will dismiss all charges against him as unfounded and frivolous.

The petition for the pardon of Dr. Samuel Mudd, addressed to the President, and signed by Democratic Senators and Representatives, has been placed in the proper channel for consideration.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, December 9.—The dwelling house of Mr. Hess, at the railroad bridge over the Sable river, caught fire about 5 o'clock this morning, and was destroyed. Mrs. Hess and her son, aged seven years, perished in the flames. Their charred remains were found with their heads and arms severed from their bodies. The cause of the fire is unknown. Mr. Hess is a sober, industrious watchman at the railroad depot.

Jacob Beeker, proprietor of the barber-shop and bath-rooms in the Sherman House, in this city, died so suddenly this morning that foul play is suspected.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, January 10.—There is a good deal of excitement among certain parties here, in relation to the prize fight which is to come off next Tuesday, between Wm. M. Davis and Jones Allen. The battlefield has not been determined upon yet. It is understood that it will take place on an island in the Mississippi river, above Alton, Ill.—the place where Davis fought McCool. A steamer for the conveyance of principals and spectators will leave the levee at seven o'clock Tuesday morning.

It is reported that a fight between C. Gallagher and Jim Elliott will be fought in the same ring; and that a light-weight contest will also take place between George Looney and Jim Adams, but nothing seems to be definitely known in regard to the matter.

Quite a large number of sports are here from abroad, among them several fighists of renown.

James A. Boyd has brought suit against the city for $10,000, for injuries received from falling in a hole in one of the street pavements.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, January 10.—The Herald publishes the following dispatch from Havana the 7th, via Lake City the 9th: Advices from St. Joga de Cuba to the 1st have just been received. Gen. Cespedes, Provisional President of the Republican Government, and Senor Hsquelera were with the insurgents near that city, and have proclaimed the emancipation of the slaves. They condemn Gen. Marmoles' course in destroying the acqueduct, and complain that the people of the Western department have not heeded the call of the revolution, and that the Junta at Havana was furnishing no money.

It is reported that Col. Benegosi has failed to occupy Solquin, and that he has been compelled to return wounded to Gibara.

News from Neuritas to the 5th gives no account of Nelmosedas' operations.

Gen. Quesada is said to have landed from Nassau with eighty men and 3000 rifles.

Puerto Princips is still surrounded by small bands of insurgents. In the city prostration and gloom prevail. The shops are closed and many arrests have taken place.

On the 18th ult. a fight occurred at Cheesvalididad Yeguces between 700 insurgents and 500 Spanish troops. The troops were defeated with heavy loss. A coaster reached Puerto Principe on the 26th ult. The wounded have been carelessly treated and many have died. The proclamation of Gen. Quesada had been received.

An extensive thaw has prevailed at all points along the Hudson for the last week and all streams leading into the river are greatly swollen. The crossings all along the river are very dangerous From Rhinebeck to this city there are many large cracks extending from shore to shore. Boatmen and other experienced river men fear a sudden movement of the ice unless the weather should soon change. To-night the weather is growing colder and there are indications that the thaw is about over.

Among witnesses said to have been examined before the Congressional committee to investigate the late election frauds in this city were Gov. Hoffman, Hon. Wm. Tweed, Hon. Chas. E. Drew and others. Mr. Drew testified that naturalization papers were issued by him only to such persons as had appeared before a Judge authorized to confer naturalization upon them. The action of Sheriff O'Brien has created some feeling among members of the committee, who say they will lay the subject before Congress next week. The committee a short time ago held a session in the County Clerk's office, where they examined the naturalization papers on file.

The World publishes the statement of Sheriff O'Brien relative to his arrest of the witness in attendance upon the Congressional Committee to investigate the alleged election frauds in this State. The Sheriff states that the Committee sent for him on Friday afternoon; that a man was swearing to things reflecting upon his character; he told the Committee that some of the men waiting outside to testify were thieves, and that Col. Wood sent them over to testify against him. He asked the Committee for permission to take them to the Sixth ward stationhouse before Capt. Jourdan who would identify them. After some hesitation they consented. He took three men down to the stationhouse, and Capt. Jourdan told him privately that they hung about with thieves, but did not like to say anything about it. He accuses Marshal Murray of hiring thieves to swear away respectable men's characters.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

CAIRO, January 10.—Down—Coosa and Forsyth, 10 p.m.; Mary Davadee, 9 a.m.; Ruth, noon; Shark, Bee and Emperor, 4 p.m.; Indiana, 6 p.m.; Julia and Bismarck, 7 p.m. Up—Lady Gay, 6 p.m.

River rose six inches.

ST. LOUIS, January 10.—No arrivals or departures to-day.

LOUISVILLE, January 10.—The Abeona, from Memphis to Cincinnati, passed up. Departed, Clifton for Memphis.

The Silver Moon, for Cincinnati, run hard aground at the head of the canal this afternoon, but will be got off by morning.

The river is 10 feet 4 inches in the canal, and falling.

FLORIDA.

TALLAHASSEE, January 10.—In the Senate yesterday, Lieut.-Gov. Gleason in vacating the chair called on Mr. Meacham, colored member, to fill it. Gleason then retired, and sent in his resignation as President of the Senate. The Lieutenant-Governor being a State officer and, by a provision of the Constitution, President of the Senate, the proceeding is deemed irregular and of no value, as the resignation should have gone through the Executive Department to the Senate, and the question arises whether he can resign the functions of the office.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, January 10.—The conference for settlement of the dispute between Greece and Turkey met in this city yesterday. Their first session was long, commencing at four o'clock in the afternoon and terminating at 11 p.m. Greek and Turkish representatives both manifested very conciliatory dispositions, and a peaceful result to the deliberations of the conference is looked forward to with confidence here. A session will take place Tuesday, January 12th.

The official journal says the Embassadors of China, now in this city, are receiving every honor and attention, and declares that Mr. Burlingame's position on the embassy is entirely satisfactory to the Emperor. The Embassadors will have a formal audience with the Emperor at an early day.

FRANKFORT, January 10.—U. S. bonds are quoted to-day at 79½.

HAVRE, January 9.—Cotton closed buoyant at 128 francs 5c for tree ordinaire.

HAVANA.

HAVANA, January 9.—A proclamation by the Captain General abolishing court martials for the trial of civil cases, was promulgated to-day.

The reports are fully confirmed that the revolutionists have decreed the abolition of slavery within their lines. The Spaniards here consider it a desperate measure, and an indication of the growing weakness of the rebel cause.

The commanders of some flying columns of Spanish troops report that the revolution is gradually decreasing, but well informed Cubans assert the contrary, and report that the revolutionary forces are constantly receiving accessions from within and without the island.

The proclamation of the liberty of the press has gone into full effect.

The leaders of the Cuban party say they have the greatest confidence in Gen. Dulce as an honorable gentleman, but they say they cannot place any reliance on the compromise measures he introduces, for another revolution may take place at any moment in Spain, which might change the whole aspect of affairs, and annul perhaps all acts of the Captain General.

The recent liberal proclamation will cause a material change in the insurrectionary districts as soon as it becomes known.

HAVANA, January 10.—Diarco, the organ of slave-traders, to the present date has published nothing of the new order of things, and sensible and moderate Spaniards are disgusted with its conduct.

The Pecusia, an ultra Spanish paper and the reported organ of the Jesuits, continues to publish bombastic articles, full of threats against the revolutionists. This journal is considered an open enemy by the Cuban party, and is respected as such.

Several new journals have made their appearance.

At the Tacon Theater, last night, the revolutionary hymn was sung amid indescribable enthusiasm.

Two battalions have left for Niuvitas.

MAGNIFICENT
RESIDENCE ON POPLAR ST.,
AT AUCTION,
By Monsarrat, Lanier & Co.
ON NEXT WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1869, we will sell, at public auction, in front of our salesroom, No. 276 Second street, at 11 o'clock a.m., that valuable LOT AND BRICK RESIDENCE on the north side of Poplar street, in the city of Memphis, formerly owned and occupied by Capt. Dan Able. The Lot contains two acres of ground, and is elegantly improved. The Residence and other improvements consist of a large Two-story Brick House, containing some 12 or 14 rooms, substantially built, and finished off in the most approved and modern style—kitchens, servants' rooms, stables, ice-house, cistern, etc.; also, an excellent garden and a large front yard, the latter being well supplied with a beautiful assortment of choice shubbery, etc. The premises are located near the present terminus of the city street railway—possessing all the advantages of a delightful suburban residence, with all the conveniences to the city.
The encumbrances or claims heretofore existing in regard to the title to this property having been recently compromised and settled, the owners are now fully prepared to make a perfect and indisputable title to the premises. Persons desirous of purchasing are especially invited to examine the premises before the day of sale. The same will be shown at any time upon application at our office or upon the premises.
TERMS OF SALE—One half cash; balance in six and twelve months, with interest.

At Auction,
NO. 328 FRONT STREET,
COMMENCING
MONDAY, JANUARY 18, 1869.
BY virtue of an order of sale to me directed by the U. S. District Court, Western District of Tennessee, in the case of W. A. McSeerry & Co vs. J. Dessauer, in bankruptcy, I will proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the stock of GROCERIES and PROVISIONS, now in the store of said J. Dessauer, No. 328 Front street, Memphis, Tenn., consisting of Sugar, Coffees, Teas, Liquors, etc. Sale to commence on
MONDAY, JANUARY 18, 1869,
At 10 o'clock a.m., to be continued at the same hour daily, (Sundays excepted) until the entire stock is sold. This sale will afford to retail dealers a good opportunity to purchase supplies from a large and well selected stock at their own price. The goods will be delivered at the store, and must be paid for before they are removed.
Sale positive and without reserve.

WHEN the Plantation Bitters were first made known to the American people some seven years ago, it was supposed that they were an entirely new thing, and had never before been used. So far as their general use in the United States is concerned, this may be true. It is also true that the same Bitters were made and sold in the Island of St. Thomas, over forty years ago, as any old planter, merchant or sea captain doing business with the West Indies will tell you. It is distinctly within my recollection that on the return of my father (who was a sea captain, and doing an extensive trade in the tropics,) he would invariably have these Bitters among the ship's stores, and our family sideboard was never without them. For any sickness, it matters not how severe or trifling, the decanter of these Bitters, by a different name, was always resorted to as a sovereign remedy.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price. †

GENTLEMEN'S woolen undershirts and drawers at B. Lowenstein & Bros. at less than cost. †

FUNERAL OF CAPT. WHITFIELD.

The body of Capt. Ed. Whitfield, so ruthlessly slain by S. A. Doran, on Friday last, was yesterday committed to the tomb in the presence of a vast concourse of sorrowing relatives, friends and companions. The Rev. Dr. Ford preached the funeral sermon at the First Methodist Church, at eleven o'clock a.m., to an immense throng, which completely filled the building, leaving scarcely standing room in the aisles. The sermon is said to have been very affecting, and brought tears to many an eye that had not been dimmed by them in years. He depicted in glowing words the uncertainty of life, and the urgent necessity for every one so living as to be prepared to meet death at any moment, and cited the example of the deceased, who but an hour before he lay cold in death was exulting in the full vigor of manhood and strength of health.

In the afternoon, about 2 o'clock, the surviving members of the 154th Senior Regiment, and a society of which the deceased was a member, numbering in all about two hundred men, wearing the usual badge of mourning and a yellow ribbon on the left arm, headed by the Old Memphis Brass Band, escorted the hearse to the residence of the deceased, on Vance street. Here an immense crowd was also assembled, and grief was depicted on every countenance.

About 3 o'clock the lid of the coffin was closed, the funeral cortege was formed, and by 4:30 the grave had closed over, and the last sod had been heaped on the mortal remains of Edward Whitfield, a devoted son, brother, husband and friend, a gallant soldier, a true gentleman and a good citizen. May he rest in peace.

Silks marked down at B. Lowenstein & Bros.

ATTEND the closing sale of Furs and Dress Goods at Menken Bros. †

LAST NIGHT OF THE HEBREW FAIR.—Owing to the lateness of the hour, it was impossible to finish the voting on all the grand prizes at the Hebrew Fair last Saturday night. The fair will therefore be continued one night longer, and the banker's prize, as also those for the physician, life insurance company and freight agent, will positively be voted off this evening. The drawing of the grand lottery prizes will also take place to-night. Let all interested be at the hall of the Memphis Club in due time. The festivities of the evening will close, as usual, with a grand hop.

NICHOLSON PAVEMENT.—The contractors have finished all of the work of paving with the Nicholson pavement let to them in this city. The Chancery Court has decided the question of the property owners' liability in favor of the contractors. The contractors are required by the city to enforce the collection of this tax by suits against the property for its condemnation and sale; hence we shall expect all parties indebted to us for the pavement to come to our office and settle. If there are those who cannot pay the money, let them come up and say frankly what they can and will do, and we shall do what we can in accepting such terms as they may be able to offer us. T. E. BROWN & Co.

CHLOROFORMED.—Mollie Lewis, a woman who lives in the Provine Block, was chloroformed and robbed on Friday night, of $35 and a lot of wearing apparel. She was quite ill all the next day from the effects of the insidious drug, which must have been administered in large quantities. No clue has been discovered to the perpetrators.

MAIN STREET is now lighted its entire length, from the Memphis and Louisville to the Mississippi and Tennessee depot, a distance of two miles and a quarter. From Beal street south, coal oil lamps are used, and the light is equal to, if not better, than the gas lights. It would not be a bad idea for the City Council to cancel their contract with the gas company and light the whole city with oil lamps. It would save a large amount of money yearly.

THE LADIES' PEARL for January is at hand. It is an excellent domestic magazine, and is Southern, therefore ought to be patronized by our ladies. It is published at Nashville, by John Shirley Ward.

DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES.—The semi-annual distribution of prizes to the scholars of St. Peter's Sunday School took place at the church yesterday evening, under the direction of Father Kelly, O. S. D. There were about seven hundred prizes given, among which were two handsome gold medals, for the best male and female pupils. They were won by Miss Jennie Barry and Master John Mahoney.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—The General Assembly adjourned on Friday without doing any work, in honor of the battle of New Orleans.

THE Nicholson pavement is finished to the corner of Wellington and Beal streets.

A CHEERING sign, and one that indicates growth and prosperity more surely than any other, is the numerous buildings which are going up in the city and around the suburbs. Several new and splendid residences are being erected on Beal street. One especially, that of E. M. Apperson, Esq., will be an ornament to our city.

FINE HORSES AND CARRIAGE FOR SALE.—A pair of blooded horses, blacks, Flying Cloud stock, with an elegant carriage and harness, will be sold at a sacrifice. Apply to Menken Bros. †

EDUCATIONAL.—Parties desiring the services of a practical accountant, or wishing to receive a business education in a short time, with small investment, should patronize Robertson's Commercial College, 97 Main street, where every facility is afforded them. †

SUPREME COURT OPINIONS.

Brownsville, Tenn., April Term, 1868---Thos. H. Coldwell, Attorney-General and Reporter.

E. M. Apperson, surviving partner, vs. B. C. D. Bynum.

Harrison, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court. The proof in this cause shows the following state of facts; Lundy made the note sued on in this action, on the 17th of February, 1862, payable six months after date, to the order of Bynum, defendant in error, payable at the branch of the Union Bank of Tennessee at Memphis, and Bynum indorsed the note, the word Memphis appearing just after his name in the indorsement. Whether the word Memphis there appearing was written by Bynum, is not shown. The plaintiff in error, E. M. Apperson, is the surviving partner of E. M. Apperson & Co., and became the holder of the note. On the 17th of February, 1862, when the note was made, the maker, indorser and holder all resided within the lines and district of country of the Confederates, who occupied the country in and around the city of Memphis—the plaintiff residing in Memphis, the maker, Lundy, some ten or twelve miles south of Memphis, and Bynum in Mississippi, several miles south of Lundy's, and south of Nonconnah creek. The branch of the Union Bank at Memphis, where the note was payable, under the orders of the rebel Gen. Beauregard, removed its assets South, on the 25th of May, 1862; but the office was kept open by T. W. Smith, the cashier, to answer the questions of any persons in the community who had any interest in the affairs of the bank, to receive special deposits at the risk of the depositor, and partly, also, to prevent the occupation and confiscation of the property by the United States. From the 28th of May, 1862, until February, 1864, no general business was transacted, and its assets were not returned until June, 1865. The military forces of the United States took possession of and permanently occupied Memphis on the 6th to the 10th of June, 1862. The United States picket lines extended around the city some two miles, and never extended beyond Nonconnah creek, which creek was between Lundy's house and Memphis. Their lines of permanent occupation extended beyond from two to four miles from the city. The country south of that was now and then occupied by the forces of each belligerent. Several witnesses examined testified that in August and September, 1862, persons passed freely from Memphis to the neighborhood of Lundy and Bynum without difficulty, and came back in the same manner, but that the Federal picket lines surrounded Memphis.

Lundy, as it is shown, was also in the city of Memphis in the summer and fall of 1862. The witness Ford had, during that time, frequently gone out to the neighborhood of Lundy and Bynum without a pass, and states that the pass system was not adopted until afterwards.

The proof further shows that the attorney of the holder of the note handed the original note to the witness, J. P. Young, to make a demand of the maker for payment, and a notice of demand and refusal of payment to be served on, or delivered, to defendant, as an indorser of the note, which notice is dated the 26th May, 1865, and the certificate or statement of the delivery thereof is in the words following:

"May 26th, 1865. On this day, I, at the request of E. M. Apperson, surviving partner of E. M. Apperson & Co., presented the note for $15 221 09 (of which the subjoined is a true copy) to William L. Lundy in person, and demanded payment of said note from him, which was refused. Whereupon, the same day I proceeded to the house of B. C. D. Bynum, and delivered to him a written notice of said demand, and refusal of payment, in the usual form. J. P. YOUNG."

The notice, exhibit B to Young's deposition, dated as above stated, on the 26th May, 1865, was delivered to Bynum on the 29th May, 1865, which occurred, as stated by the witness Young, by the counsel of plaintiff having made out the notice three days before Young served it on defendant.

After a careful and elaborate review of the arguments on both sides the learned Judge ruled that although it was clearly settled that, as against the indorser, when a note is payable at a certain place, it must be presented for payment, yet that, where this had become impracticable, demand at such place is excused.

He therefore reversed the judgment and remanded the case for a new trial.

An application for rehearing was, after a review of the former argument, refused.

ECONOMY OF GAS.—As long as we are in the clutches of the gas monopoly, and can not get out of it, a few hints as to how gas bills may be reduced will, we are sure, be acceptable to our readers. An exchange (the Gaslight Reporter, we believe,) gives the following rules:

In lighting your gas, turn the gas on the meter about one half, then light the gas, and regulate the lights by the stop-cock that lets the gas into the meter. This prevents the pressure of gas from making the index move so fast. The greater the pressure of gas on the meter the faster it moves, and the larger will be the gas bill. From the time that gas is usually lighted until half past eight or nine o'clock the pressure is the same. After the stores and shops are closed, the pressure is then greater on the meter in use, and the stop-cock should be turned at the meter so as to regulate the pressure. An observance of these directions may entail some little trouble, but it will most certainly reduce gas bills very materially. Many persons pay almost as much for gas that is wasted as for what they consume, and waste may be entirely prevented by following these rules.

PARADISE.

East Tennessee is the Place "Where the Wicked Cease to Trouble and the Weary are at Rest."

Brownlow's Advice to Immigrants.

From the last number of the Knoxville Whig we extract the following letter from Brownlow, setting forth the advantages of East Tennessee over the Middle and West, and infamously suggesting Gen. Thomas' report as a correct picture of the state of society, in these divisions of the State:

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Dec. 10, 1868.

MR. JOHN P. FARRANT:

In reply to your letter I have to say, and I say it in candor, East Tennessee, above all places on earth, is the place for you and your colony. We are peaceable, loyal and prosperous, and you would be as safe here as you would in Pennsylvania. East Tennessee, composed of thirty-one counties, is separated from Middle and West Tennessee by the Cumberland range of mountains, and is every way as distinct from the other divisions of the State as New Jersey is from Pennsylvania; and as to loyalty, of the 30,000 majority given in the State for Grant, about 25 000 of that majority was obtained in East Tennessee.

The troubles and disturbances of which you hear so much said are confined to Middle and West Tennessee, where the rebel influence predominates. For the facts in regard to the state of affairs in Middle and West Tennessee, I refer you to the late able and truthful report of Maj. Gen. Thomas.

I deem it proper to state, in conclusion, that the few selfish men in the Republican ranks who denounce Northern men as "carpet-baggers" do not reflect the sentiments, wishes or feelings of the great Republican party of the State. We, one and all, welcome you to our State. Come out and see for yourselves, and you will be constrained to say, in regard to the advantages of our country, as the Queen said to the King, "the half has not been told."

Very truly, your friend,
W. G. BROWNLOW,
Governor of Tennessee.

THE HEBREW FAIR.—The Fair for the benefit of the Hebrew Orphan Asylum has, we are happy to say, been well attended, not alone by those of our citizens to whose faith the charity most nearly appeals, but by our people generally. On Saturday night the attendance was especially large and encouraging, and accordingly the generosity of the managers was tested sufficiently to prove that it is as strong as when, during the war, they subscribed liberally for the soldiers of the "lost cause," and generously succored the wounded of both armies. The prize for the most popular banker, and also that for the most popular Deputy Sheriff, is being contended for by the friends of those whose names have been proposed as candidates. To-night it is expected there will be much pleasure and a continuance of the contests on hand, that will result very profitably for the orphans. We urge an attendance by all of our people, as only a small return to their Hebrew neighbors for unnumbered help to every charity in the city. Go and do what you can to help the orphans.

LILLIPUTIANS.—On Wednesday evening next at Memphis Club Hall a levee will be held by Gen. Tom Thumb and wife, Commodore Nutt, and Minine Warren. It will be an interesting affair, and will be largely attended. Gen. Thumb and wife will retire from public life at an early day, and this is said to be their last season giving exhibitions.

THE DESOTO INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY will elect seven directors for the ensuing year at their office No. 42 Madison, between the hours of 10 and 4 to day. It is earnestly requested that every stockholder deposit his vote.

BUSINESS PROPERTY.—To-day (Monday) at 2½ p.m., on the premises, Monsarrat, Lanier & Co., will sell at auction several lots situated on the southeast corner of Washington and Fourth streets. This is desirable property, and is a good location for business. The terms are liberal.

THE DIXIE FARMER.—This most excellent agricultural paper is now published in Nashville. The Banner of Saturday says of it: "We are indebted to the publishers, Messrs. Paul, Tavel & Hanner, Union street, for the initial Nashville number, for the week ending January 7th. It is got up in an entirely new dress, in the handsomest typography of the book printing department of the enterprising publishers. It now has a beautiful vignette title head-letter, and is a model of typographical skill and by long odds the handsomest farmer's paper in America. We congratulate our friend and confrere Hunter Nicholson, Esq., in the handsome manner in which his editorial lucubrations are served up. The Farmer is edited with marked ability. It is a useful and creditable acquisition to the press of our city. No farmer in Tennessee ought to be without it, and they are a short sighted lot if they do not give it abundant support."

NO DOUBT.—A West Tennessee country editor, in endorsing the sagacious remarks of a newly fledged city editor, (who lately in speaking of several defunct Memphis papers said they were "written to death,") says: "Memphis is not the only city where papers have been killed off in this way. Our observation is, that Mr. Scissors is the best editor that ever conducted a paper." O wise young man! If every body were of your calibre and opinion, Mr. Scissors would have a nice time "conducting" a paper.

Gold in New York opened to-day at 135¼ and closed at the same. Exchange was steady.

We quote gold at 134@134¼ buying. Selling at 135@136, with some demand from the interior.

City bonds are rather firmer to-day. One of our banks holding a $50,000 order for delivery in Baltimore at 49¾, was unable to buy, except in small amounts and make their commission. We failed to hear of more than one or two small transactions to-day, which were made at prices ranging from 48¼@48¾.

We learn that parties interested are making a strong effort to impair the credit of the city upon the street, but so far they have failed to do so.

City Scrip is quiet at 75c buying. Selling at 78c.

County Warrants are in some demand at 75c. Selling in a small way at 78c.

Police Scrip is firm at 94@95c buying. Selling at 96c.

In the New York Chamber of Commerce, on Thursday, an important decision took place upon the means of returning to specie payments. Mr. A. A. Lowe, the President of the Chamber, introduced a resolution favoring the purchasing and canceling of greenbacks at a gradually reduced premium, and the funding of the public debt at a lower rate of interest, and made the following remarks: He said that, according to the Constitution, the only power Congress had in the matter was to coin money and regulate the circulation thereof, but the war conferred a necessity that could not be prevented. Paper money is a departure from the authorized standard, and when Congress assumes it it should at least regulate its value, but this it has never done. Paper currency has no fixed value. He said that we can now pass from the paper currency to that of specie without the danger or difficulty that is generally imagined. During the war our people were accustomed to hear our English friends say that the South could never be subjugated, but the result has proved that their prophecies were chimerical, and it will be demonstrated that our financial croakers also prophecy in vain in regard to an early return to specie payments safely. The legal tenders should be redeemed day by day, and thus with a gradual contraction all dangers can be avoided. The only question that remains to be answered is, how rapidly shall the contraction take place. In any result banks and individuals must take care of themselves. The malady is known and it remains for us to apply the cure. Our circulation must have coin as a basis. A financial plan comprehending both paper and coin cannot work harmoniously together or last long. Senator Morton, Mr. Lowe said, had reported that there is three hundred million dollars of gold in the country. This is an error. The exportation of gold, as well as locking it up, is impoverishing the country, and will ere long bring financial ruin if a cure is not speedily applied. He did not believe that there is more than two hundred and fifty million dollars of gold to perform all the functions of trade, and the only wonder is that it can be kept at 135c when it is considered that we are constantly sending it out of the country. J. B. Chittenden, in contending for a motion to refer the resolutions to a committee, made a vigorous speech in favor of a speedy return to specie payment by act of Congress.

COTTON.

The Liverpool market, at the opening to-day, was active—Uplands, 11½@11 3-16d; Orleans, 11¾d. At 1:20 p.m. it was active—Uplands, 11¼@11¼d on spot; afloat, 11¼d; Orleans, 11¼@11¼d; sales 20,000 bales.

The New York market was unchanged at the opening in every respect. The 11:50 a.m. dispatch read as follows: "Cotton so excited and unsettled, accurate quotations cannot be given. Asking for Low Middlings 28½c; Uplands, 29c; Orleans, 29½c; Good Middlings, 30½c." At the close it was quiet but firm—Uplands, 28½c.

At 12 m. to-day the New Orleans market was higher, with good demand—Middlings, 26½c. At 2:15 p.m. the demand was good and prices had advanced—Middlings nominally 27c; sales 4500 bales.

Our market has been excited and very irregular and quotations which would suit one hour were too low the next. On this hope nearly all the sales of the day were made. Holders were asking nearly if not as much as the same grades were selling for in New York. Buyers were willing to operate, but wanted some margin; holders would not concede, so the day closed upon a really inactive market. We learn that a large number of our citizens are indulging in cotton, so far as their means will allow—some offering to pledge their real estate to raise the means to purchase the staple. This mania extends all through the community. Those who are unable to buy outright, put up their margin of $5@10 per bale and let the factor carry the cotton. We quote as follows, premising that it is possible that some small lots were sold both above and below our quotations:

Ordinary	25 @—
Good Ordinary	26 @—
Low Middlings	26½@27
Middlings	27½@28
Strict Middlings	28½@29
Good Middlings	29½@30

COTTON STATEMENT, CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, MEMPHIS, January 9, 1869.

Stock on hand Sept. 1, 1868		47
Received to-day	800
Received previously	138,781	139,621
		139,668
Exported to-day	1,175
Exported previously	130,304	131,479
Stock on hand at 12 m		8,189

Week's receipts 5297 bales; exports 9704 bales. The receipts for the corresponding week last year were 8037 bales. On the 9th of January, 1868, Middlings in this market were selling at 14½, of which the Government got 2c. The New York weekly statement shows up as follows: Receipts, 6560 bales nett; gross, 21,000; week's sales, 32,000 bales; stock, 36,000 bales; exports to Great Britain, 7134 bales; to the Continent, 1250 bales; week's receipts at all United States ports, 70,000 bales. This shows a falling off for the week at all ports of 9000 bales.

TRADE.

Business to-day was better, but there is still a noticeable absence of country buyers. The roads, during the few days of fine weather, were hardly rendered passable when the last rain set in and left them in as bad condition as ever. The troubles in Arkansas are also doing serious detriment to our trade, as a very large amount of merchandise should now be going in that direction. Instead of this, planters are fleeing for their lives, and the cotton fields of whole counties are deserted. But a few weeks ago we had three boats in White river, and it was contemplated to put in the fourth, but the presence of Clayton's militia at various points, and the robberies perpetrated by them, have cut down the travel and trade so effectually that two of the packets had to lay up and the other two go out with light trips.

As the discussion progresses in the Senate upon the Sue Murphy claim, the interest in the subject enhances and the magnitude of the principle and the precedent to be settled begins to be appreciated. If the Murphy claim be allowed, it admits the legality and justness of a large number of claims of Southern citizens for destruction or use of private property during the war, which have hitherto been denied in the departments, and although it is generally estimated that the aggregate of the claims of this character is twenty million dollars, yet officials conversant with the matter say that there is reason to believe the aggregate will reach one hundred millions. It is not probable that the discussion will cease on this subject during the present month, especially if the bill shall reach the House.

Mr. Beck's bill to modify the act of July, 1868, imposing taxes on distilled spirits and tobacco, etc., which was referred to the Ways and Means Committee on Wednesday, is of much importance to the small distillers of the West. The bill reads: Be it enacted, etc, That so much of the twentieth section of the act approved July 20, 1868, entitled an act imposing tax on distilled spirits and tobacco, and for other purposes, as provides that forty five gallons of mash or beer brewed or fermented from grain shall represent not less than one bushel of grain shall apply only to such distilleries, as evaporate the alcoholic spirit in whole or in part by steam; and hereafter in all the distilleries in which the alcoholic spirit is evaporated by the direct action of fire, sixty gallons of mash or beer, brewed or fermented from grain, shall represent not less than one bushel of grain.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

Yesterday was a raw, chilly day. Rain or snow was looked for before night, but none fell up to a late hour. The river is rising at this point. It has gone up 16 inches in the past 24 hours. The Arkansas is high, with plenty of water for the largest boats to Fort Smith. White river is high. Hence to Cairo we have a good stage of water. The Ohio is still rising at Cairo, but is falling at Louisville, Cincinnati and Pittsburg. For latest news from all points we refer our readers to our midnight dispatches.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The United States mail packet Des Arc, Capt. John Elliott, is the regular Tuesday White river steamer. She connects with the Little Rock train and with the Argos for points above to Jacksonport. Joe Elliott, Glass and Granger are her clerks.

The Guidon, Capt. Clay Rice, leaves on Wednesday for Pine Bluff and way points on the Arkansas.

The good steamer Mary Forsyth, Capt. John Crane, leaves to-day for Cairo and St. Louis. She is the first boat in the regular line for some days, and makes close connections with trains North and East. Mr. White is her chief secretary.

The Martine reships her White river freight here, and goes to some point on upper Red river, Texas.

The Thompson Dean and Mary Houston passed up yesterday, and the Louisiana and Silver Spray down. The latter boat was loaded to the guards.

The Mollie Able, Capt. Dan Able, will be in port to leave to-day at noon for New Orleans. She is one of our finest steamers, and Capt. Dan is too well known here to need any praise from us. Billy Graham has charge of the office.

The Natoma came in yesterday with 225 bales of cotton. She leaves to-morrow for Friar's Point and way landings. Jim Lee is master. Fields, Whitehead and Saulsbury are in the office.

The Columbian is due to-day from New Orleans.

The Mississippi will be here on Wednesday.

The fine steamer Minneola, Capt. Miller, came in yesterday before daylight, with a good trip. She leaves for Cincinnati to-morrow. Mr. Grubb is her clerk.

The new and elegant St. Francis will get away for Wittsburg and all points on St. Francis river to-morrow evening. Tom Bowman is master. Sam Paine and Billy Clark are clerks.

Capt. John W. Cannon, of the R. E. Lee, was in town yesterday. He left for New Orleans on the evening train.

The steamer Lida Norvell tried to back over Capt. Manigault's tug Nettie, at New Orleans the other day. The Lida lost her starboard guard and cook house, and didn't get over then.

The United States mail steamer Thos. H. Allen, Capt. Reese Pritchard, will leave this evening for Pine Bluff and Little Rock. She connects with the packet for Fort Smith, and will go through on time. In her office will be found C. T. Walker, a reliable and polite Clerk.

The Coosa, Capt. Gus Brown, leaves to-day for Cairo and Evansville. She wants 1000 bales of cotton, and will put it through on time.

All the machinery has been removed from the Keota, recently sunk at the Vicksburg levee.

Mary Adele, daughter of Capt. W. P. Lamothe, died of consumption on board the steamer Glasgow at New Orleans on the 7th. She was an interesting young lady of 17.

Freights from New Orleans to St. Louis range from 15 to 20c per 100.

The B. L. Hodge, from Shreveport to New Orleans, had 2029 bales of cotton—the largest trip out of Red river this season.

The Lizzie Gill and Glasgow left New Orleans on Saturday.

The Indiana, Capt. Rube Neal, will be in port to leave for New Orleans to-day at five p.m. She is an excellent passenger packet and Capt. Rube is a favorite master. Passengers make a note of the above.

The towboat Argosy passed down yesterday. She had five flatboats in tow. Among the freight was 1200 tons of hay.

A new boat, called the Clara Scott, has just been completed at Evansville for the Wabash river trade. She is 133 feet in length, beam 28 feet 9 inches, hold 4 feet 4 inches. She made her maiden trip on Thursday.

Emmett Strange, a well known river clerk arrived in the city last evening by rail from New Orleans.

We learn from Gus Spaigalo that the Yalobusha is rising.

American steamers, aggregating more than 50 000 tons, are now running in the Chinese river and coasting trade.

We learn that the Trinity river is almost out of its banks. It is in fine boating order, and two steamers are above Liberty.

The United States District Court at St. Louis has decided the case of H. K. Hezlett and others against Peter Conrad for damages caused by the collision of Des moines and Katie, in the Ohio river in November, 1864. Judgment was rendered in favor of Hazlett, by allowing him $10,086.

UNION FEMALE COLLEGE,

Oxford, Mississippi.

Chartered by the State in 1854, and authorized to confer the Highest Educational Honors on Young Ladies.

MERITS—AIM—CARE.—Parents and Guardians are especially invited to consider the merits of this Institution. To educate—in the true sense of the word—to educate thoroughly the young ladies of the South, is its aim. The departments of Mathematics, Physical and Moral Sciences, Literature, Ancient and Modern Languages, Music, Drawing, etc., are ably filled by accomplished teachers, male and female.

Special care—it may be said, uncommon care is taken not only to thoroughly educate in the Arts and Sciences, but to render the pupils contented and happy, to train their moral sentiments, to establish correct habits, to preserve their health, and to throw around them proper restraints. In short, to afford to patrons one of the very best regulated Institutions in the land.

APPARATUS.—Arrangements have been made to supply the College with suitable Apparatus sufficient to illustrate the Sciences, and to give a practical knowledge of them. In addition, the classes in Chemistry, Astronomy and Natural Philosophy, through the courtesy of the officers of the State University, will have access to its large and well appointed Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus, excelled by none in the South, and to be favored with lectures and experimental illustrations by Drs. Garland and Riggard, the learned Professors in these Departments.

BUILDING—LOCATION.—The building, estimated to be worth $80,000, is commodious, comfortable and retired.

REFERENCES.—All patrons and pupils of the College.

BOARDING DEPARTMENT.—In charge of Rev. W. W. McNealus, is kept in a style seldom, if ever, equaled. All the teachers board in the College.

UNIFORMITY OF DRESS—ECONOMY.—Purple Cashmere, Brown Merino, Pink Percale, Plaid Lawn and White Dresses, Plain Hat, trimmed only with a band of black velvet. Those wishing to wear mourning are required to conform in plainness of dress, but no in color. As economy is the object of this arrangement, new pupils need only to provide clothing already on hand, if as plain as the uniform, but when additional purchases are necessary, the uniform must be regarded.

EXPENSES.—Per session of 23 weeks, paid in advance:

Preparatory Classes.....$ 11 50
College classes, proper.....25 00
Ancient and Modern Language, each.....12 50
Music, each Instrument.....25 00
Use of Instruments.....5 00
Ornamental branches, usual rates.....
Board, Lodging, Washing, Fuel, Light and Attendance.....100 00

Pupils charged at the above rates from the date of entrance until end of session in June, except in cases of protracted sickness.

T. C. REDDY, Secretary pro tem of Trustees.
